Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks

The Examiner informs the applicants that the Examiner is working on the present application, but is not ready yet to respond to the amendment. This is due to the following:

- the examination to the amendment filed on September 11, 1998, requires an extensive time for considering four Information Disclosure Statements, each of which has many references; and
- the studying of the references has not been completed and still needs extra studying time.

The Examiner needs no response to this letter from the Applicants.
